Q1. Please provide the recruitment details in the last 20 years such as employment notice number, date (for open advertisement recruitment) and name of college, date (for campus recruitment) in which PGCIL mentioned to opt category as OBC creamy layer or General.

A1. As per available records from different files, details of recruitments made during the last 20 years for the post of Executive Trainee, where OBC (CL) was given as an option during application process is as follows:

Ref No.	Date of publishing of advertisement	Mode of recruitment
C/HR/Rectt/ET-IX/452	09.08.2003 (Employment News)	Open Competition
C/HR/Rectt/ET-X/463	18.09.2004 (Employment News)	Open Competition

Q2. Does/did OBC creamy layer candidate get any more/less benefit compared to General candidate? If yes, please provide detail.

A2. Benefits of reservation and relaxation are only provided to OBC Non Creamy Layer candidates.

Q3. If no (for question 2), please provide the administrative reason (under section 4 (1) d of RTI Act 2005) to provide two category (General and OBC Creamy layer) in employment notices. (please reply this question taking into reference of other public authorities which mention only General category instead two category: General and OBC Creamy layer)

A3. No reason could be ascertained from the records.

Q4. If you are mentioning two categories (General and OBC Creamy layer) under any guideline of PGCIL or any other public authority, please provide certified copy of the guidelines.

A4. Please refer to reply to query 3.
