Q.No.2

Instructions and mandate of rules followed in POWERGRID to file L.T.C.Declaration

Answer

A declaration Form regarding Home Town and dependent family members is required to be filled by employee.

Q.No.3

How many family members of employees can included in L.T.C.. What is eligibility criteria of family members of employees to claim and receive the claim successfully.

Answer

POWERGRID has been providing LTC facilities to its employees and their dependent family members as per LTC rules.

As per Clause No. 2.6 POWERGRID LTC Rule "Family means an employee's spouse(only one) and only two legitimate surviving children (including step children and legally adopted children) below 25 years and parents or Parents-in-laws in case of female employees, subject to member being dependent on the employee. The restriction regarding number of children shall not apply in respect of existing employees (to be reckoned from the date of respective pay revision order i.e. 01.01.1997) who are availing the facility of LTC for existing number of children. However the restriction of age i.e. 25 years shall apply to the existing children except in case of unmarried daughter where the age limit shall be 30 years. Further the restriction of 25 years for dependent children will not be applicable for Physically Handicapped children or mentally retarded children dependent on the employee."

As per Clause No. 2.6.3 of POWERGRID LTC rule"The criterion for judging the dependency or otherwise of a family member of an employee will be the monthly income of the concerned family member. A family member will be deemed to be dependent upon the employee if his/her income from all sources is not more than Rs. 6000/- per month. In case of parents, the income of both father and mother jointly will taken into account for this purpose".
