ANNEX-I

1. Drawing of Visual monitoring system (VMS) are developed by the vendors for specific project based on our technical specification. Bill of quantities for a specific project depends on many factors like size of plot, substation voltage level, camera type and its mounting height etc. Hence there are no standard drawings for VMS.
2. The drawings documents developed by vendors are proprietary documents and cannot be shared for knowledge sharing purpose without the consent of vendor.

In view of the above, information sought cannot be furnished.
