During service bond period, in both case diploma trainee (supervisory category) and executive trainee, if an employee of the POWERGRID applied for direct recruitment to UPSC and immediately informs to the head of office/department, that he has applied for the direct recruitment to UPSC.

Can the POWERGRID allow to that person to appear in the exam or permission can be denied to appear in the examination. If denied to give permission, please give reasons why does the POWERGRID not give the permission to appear in the examination, which is conducted by UPSC where NOC is not required, only head of office/department needs to be informed (if employee meets all eligibility condition according to UPSC advertisement).
