Date: 21.03.2017

Sub: Recognition of qualification acquired through distance mode.

- 1.0 One of the Region's has sought clarification regarding whether the qualification acquired in Diploma in Electrical Engineering from IGNOU conducted under Vertically Integrated Engineering Programme (VIEP) may be recognised for the purpose of employment in POWERGRID.
- 2.0 The case was examined and it is stated that for recruitment, no qualification (technical course/MBA) acquired through distance education mode shall be considered for any post in POWERGRID. IGNOU Engineering courses through VIEP shall also be treated as distance education course. The said policy shall be applicable for both Departmental as well as external candidates. However, wherever any recruitment process has been initiated and internal circular has already been issued as on date, the eligibility of candidates having qualification acquired through distance mode may be evaluated on case-to-case basis as per prevailing rules.
- 3.0 If any employee is desirous of pursuing any course (recognised/unrecognised) through open and distance learning mode or any mode, his/her request may be considered for permission under the service rules without any consideration for incentive. Incentive under higher/additional qualification scheme shall only be considered in case of recognised courses.

This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
