On receipt of the appeal, relevant papers and information provided by the CPIO were perused. I am of the view that the information regarding policy and procedure has already been provided by the CPIO vide its letter dated 18th April 2019. However, it is the information regarding activation status of web application of his dependents for medical purpose, in which the appellant herein is interested in. Be that as it may, CPIO is hereby directed to provide information regarding activation status of web application of appellant's dependents for medical purpose to him within seven days from the date of this order.
