Sub: Non-Furnishing of complete Information under RTI

Ref: Letter No PGCIL/R/2019/50391 dated 30-09-2019 issued by CPIO, PGCIL, Gurugram

Sir,

Vide the above referred letter, my application under Right to Information Act has been rejected by the CPIO on 3 points quoting section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act, 2005 and the reasons which are not tenable as per the RTI Act and the subsequent judicial rulings. Various rulings of the CIC were already mentioned in my application by virtue of which his office was under a statutory obligation to provide the information asked by me in my application.

Further the information in the said application was requested within 48 hours citing specific reasons. However no information/reply was received within the stipulated time as per RTI Act which is unjust and illegal.

You will appreciate the fact that your organization through CPIO, NR-I has already furnished similar information in the past vide letter No. Power Grid/NR-I/RTI/615/5560 dated 25-08-2014. Hence non-furnishing of the information for the present application is bad in law and tantamount to hiding of information by the CPIO. This is more so when the fact of furnishing similar information in earlier RTI application was clearly mentioned alongwith various binding judgements of CIC.

Still my application was rejected on the ground of section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act which is not correct and against the spirit of legislation.

Hence through this letter I make an appeal to you to kindly make available the information sought after by me at the earliest possible as it pertains to a matter pending before Hon'ble Supreme Court. In case of non-furnishing of the information or delay beyond the prescribed time limits CPIO shall be held personally liable for any loss (including unfavourable judgement by Supreme Court) incurred by me. Please note that in view of the intentional suppression of the information requested (which was earlier provided by your organization), I reserve the right to make the CPIO a party before Hon'ble Supreme Court and any other court in respect of the present and future matrimonial and related court matters involving the employee of your organization Mr Ashish Agrawal.

Yours sincerely
