Sir,
Sub:- RTI Application Reply
Ref: Your RTI dtd 17.05.2022 to MOP

Please refer your RTI application dtd 17.05.2022, to CPIO , MOP , GOI which was further partially transferred to PSITSL twice and received in this office on 31.05.2022 & 08.06.2022 . As the content of RTI is exactly the same , both have been examined together w.r.t the available records and the point wise information is as under as single reply.

Sl.No.	Information	Reply
01	Under which act or guidelines or rules the PGCIL is entitled to enter in any land for establishment of ROW corridor without serving "NOTICE" to the AFFECTED LAND OWNER.	It is to submit that there is no provision for obtaining the consent or NOC from the affected person(land owner) for laying of transmission lines (approved under Sec 68) under the Electricity Act 2003 read with Indian Telegraph Act 1885, the guidelines for payment of compensation towards damages in regard to Right of way of Transmission lines dtd 15.10.2015 issued by MOP and the GO RT 83 dtd 20.06.2017 of

		AP Govt and for issue of notice . Further as per the orders of Supreme Court in respect of CA 8342 of 2009 , 10951 & 10953 of 2016 , taking of prior consent from land owner before laying transmission line is not required.
2	Under which act or guidelines or rules the PGCIL is entitled to transfer compensation into my bank account or without my permission without redress the grievances as mentioned in the above table and pending at District Collector W.G.Dt (24-07-2019) and pending complaint at MOP dated 05-03-2019.	As per the Indian Telegraph Act and GO No 83 RT of AP Govt , the organisation is to necessarily disburse compensation to the land owner whose land is coming in the corridor below the transmission line. Notice of 17.01.2019 has been served to the affected person even by post . With the receipt of bank details from the affected person, compensation as above in line with relevant existing guidelines has been sent to the account of affected person . No grievances are pending with PSITSL and that pending with District Collector you may approach them.
03	Obtain a copy of Notice served to Affected person signed by "Tallada Dilip Goud" and not others from PGCIL and provide a copy of the same to me.	As already intimated earlier, notice of 17.01.2019 on the affected person at site was handed over to a person , who signed and assured to hand over the same to the affected person .Hence the above notice is not having the sign of the affected person . The above notice dated 17.01.2019 issued to the affected person was sent by a covering letter dated 23.01.2019(enclosed) and confirmed receipt by the affected Person.
04	Obtain authorisation letter given by "Affected Person" to PGCIL authorities for accepting compensation to transfer into his bank account.	Vide letter dtd 15.02.2019 bank details for transfer of compensation given by Sri Tallada Dilip Gouda, the affected person. Accordingly compensation has been disbursed.

		As per the Indian Telegraph Act and GO No 83 RT of AP Govt , the organisation is to necessarily disburse compensation to the land owner whose land is coming in the corridor below the transmission line. Hence return is not envisaged.
06	Action taken by the Ministry against PGCIL on the above irregularities by PGCIL to establishment of ROW corridor in a Private land.	Pertains to MOP who indicated to have sent.
07	Proved me a remedy to approach for justice of above.	It is open to the affected person to avail remedy towards compensation under Indian Telegraph Act.
3 rd para of RTI letter	Following are representations made to the PGCIL authorities not responded.. Statement enclosed	The process of compensation was underway at the time of receipt of initial letters. Responded by releasing the compensation to the account of affected person Replied from time to time various other letters of affected person and replies dtd 19/03/2021, 28/04/2021, 30/09/2021 comprehensively cover all the issues. .
