Sub: Reply to RTI Request of Shri A Hanumantha Char, Bangalore, Karnataka

Sl. No.	Information sought:	Reply:
1)	Information regarding - whether the discounts/ concessions if any applicable to the Retired Employees while using the Out Patient Department as per the Agreements entered with the Empanelled Hospitals should be communicated to the Retired Employees or not?	The concerned beneficiary needs to present his/her POWERGRID ID card at the hospital to get the relevant discount.
2)	Information regarding - Whether Non-communication of the information as in 1) above (ie applicability of discounts), can result into unilaterally deducting the applicable discount/ rebate amount from the Employees OPD Medical Claims, if the same is not availed by the unaware Retired Employee from the empanelled hospitals?	All medical claims are regulated in accordance with the rates, discount and other terms & conditions cited in the Letter of award (LOA) of the concerned hospital Accordingly, all employees (serving and retired) are expected to enquire /ensure POWERGRID discount is availed on the OPD bills. Further, in cases of deductions in OPD claims, Finance department mentions the reason for the deduction in the Remarks column in Superannuation portal against the relevant claim.
3)	Information regarding -the deductions if any from the Retired Employees Non-Hospitalisation Claims, without communicating the rebates/ discounts as per internal agreements (MOUs) to the Retired Employees through Superannuation Portal or some other means, is a justified procedure to effect such recoveries/deductions?	In cases where there are deductions in OPD bills due to charges levied by the hospital not as per agreement, the concerned beneficiary may contact the HR department, so that the later may convey the Hospital to refund the excess amount charged to the beneficiary.
