Information Sought :	Sir The answer key of PGCIL Junior technician trainee was released in the month of February and the score card of JTT was released a few days ago, but some of our colleagues were not given marks as per the departmental answer key. 5 to 10 marks have been given extra. On what basis were they given extra marks despite having the same question paper, same shift and same zone? Our hopes seem to be dashed as some people have increased their marks by 5 to 10.
