3.	Particulars of information: As given below- The undersigned hereby request you to furnish the copy of the following information and documents
4.	How much Megawatt current will be produced in the Gerukamukh Hydroelectric Power Project.	It is to state that, NHPC does not own any Project named "Gerukamukh Hydroelectric Power Project" and there is no unit known as Megawatt current. However, it is informed that, the under-construction Subansiri Lower Hydroelectric Project has an installed capacity of 2000 MW.
5.	c. How much Megawatt current will be received by the state of Assam.	NHPC does not have any project/ power station by the name of Gerukamukh Hydro electric Power Project, however, Subansiri Lower Hydroelectric Project of NHPC is located in the village Gerukamukh. So the information has been provided in respect of Subansiri Lower Hydroelectric Project of NHPC. Further, there is no unit in terms of Megawatt current and Power is allocated in terms of Megawatts (MW) by Ministry of Power (MOP). As per allocation order of MoP, Assam has been allocated 233 MW from 2000 MW Subansiri Lower Hydroelectric Power Project.
