	In reference of letter No. POWERGRID/NR-3/A/20-21/25823 dtd 09.07.2021 OF 1 st AA/PGCIL/Lucknow. In Para 2, he has mentioned that " referred payment pertains to transitional complexities and to avoid any inappropriate transaction & tax liabilities to the parties. This time taken is due to processing complexity and not attributable to any POWERGRID official".
01.	Information as per GST Act which came into force from 01.07.2017, was there any provision/mention in the Act for the situation mentioned above for which PGCIL has held the payment of 4/5 months.
02.	Information if for clearing payment after 4/5 months, PGCIL had received any Direction/clarification from Government on the issue/situation for which PGCIL had held the payment.	It is reiterated that referred payment pertains to transitional complexities and to avoid any inappropriate transaction & tax liabilities to the parties. Further, time taken is due to processing complexity and not attributable to any POWERGRID official. The records available with us has already been provided, and no further records related to the information sought for are available with us.
03.	Information for the situation mentioned by PGCIL, if PGCIL had received any internal instruction/circular for holding the payment and releasing the same after 4/5 months. If received, in your reply please reproduce concerned lines based on which payment was held and released after 4/5 months. You may provide me copy of internal document/note sheet if any created referring internal instruction/circular for holding the payment and releasing the payment after 4/5 months.
04.	Information if PGCIL has no document announced/issued by Government to deal with the situation mentioned in Para 2 of 1 st AA above letter and reproduced by me in 1 st Para mentioned above.
05.	Information required if for this Act PGCIL had held any of its official responsible or all concerned got their salary alright. Information required if for this decision PGCIL or any of PGCIL officials had suffered in any manner. Information required if any official of PGCIL brought out provisions of MSME Act when payment of an MSME unit was held up beyond 45 days.
