| Text of RTI First Appeal :            | Applicant is the wife of the person, whose information she has sought for. Moreover as a legal married wife I have the every right to know about the income of my husband. It is no way personal information mentioned in Section 8 of the Act. Moreover I have received this income information earlier from the authority. Now I want to know the current income as he is living separately and is not maintaining me and my minor daughter. |  |                      |
