Subject: Requesting for Information under RTI Act 2005,
Sec 6(1).

Respected Sir,

- 1) In 2006, APTRANSCO^(govt) has declared the Original route of 400KV transmission line. The erection of towers has started in the year 2010.
- 2) Original route consists of all the Agricultural lands. In Original route, a landlord has planted mango trees in his land in 2010. In Order to save the landlord the original route has been diverted by $1\frac{1}{2}$ km.
- 3) In this case in order to save the one person, is it possible to change the first alignment route. Are there are any rules to change the route. In case, kindly let us know the rules and regulations.
- 4) Kindly, please observe the attached route map. (The land represented in the box is the mango garden belongs to landlord.)
- 5) We are small farmers and we don't have any knowledge about computer and Internet. So we request you to provide information in the written form in letter kindly, please provide the information as early as possible.

Thanking you, Sir.

Yours Faithfully,
