Text of RTI First Appeal :	With respect to response received by RTI reply 1. It is mentioned that job specification of post was designed keeping in view the work requirement and carrier progression,so if a candidate decides to work as diploma trainee despite of being graduate, he/she should be allowed as it their right to choose his/her profession. 2) why pgcil introduced this criteria that B.E graduate cannot apply for diploma trainee because no other central/state/PSU has specified this criteria, even ISRO,SSC and DFCCIL has allowed B.E graduate with diploma to apply for post of JE or TA. 3) My concern is that most of students study B.E after Diploma because they get job opportunities based on diploma/B.E or both, but if such candidates are not allowed it will pass a wrong message for next generation that after graduation he/she can't apply for diploma jobs. 4) Will Diploma+ B.E candidate allowed if he/she clears written test with declaration that he/she will serve as diploma trainee??
