Dear Sir/Madam

I am to refer to your Request for Information under RTI Act 2005, received vide letter dated 19/09/2019 and to say that In reference to your captioned application under RTI Act 2005 the following reply is furnished as under

The application has been worded too broadly and it is not clear what specific information were sought from that end. The information sought is incomplete / vague / ambiguous.

In the above circumstances, you are advised to make your request as precise as possible, so that the CPIO can deduce the information as sought by that end without wasting any time by coming back to the applicant. The applicant is given an opportunity to re-draft the subject application and then re submit it, before it can be considered or rejected out rightly as the case may be..

In case, you want to go for an appeal in connection with the information provided, you may appeal to the Appellate Authority indicated below within thirty days from the date of receipt of this letter.
