

Appeal dated 16.05.2020 by Sh.Dharmraj Kumar ("Appellant") against the CPIO Reply furnished on 16/04/2020 under Right to Information Act, 2005 ("Act")

ORDER

RTI appeal having registration no. PGCIL/A/E/20/00021 received through online on 16/05/2020 from the "appellant" against the RTI reply furnished on 16/04/2020. The appellant has appealed against the information furnished by the CPIO on 16/04/2020, wherein the CPIO had divulged the information against RTI Application dated 14/03/2020.

On perusal of the RTI Application, RTI Reply & the Appeal filed by the Appellant, it is observed that the Appellant had sought for information as regards to the non-selection to the post of Field Supervisor (Civil) for which the test had been conducted. The CPIO has furnished the reply to the queries raised by the applicant, however, on dissatisfaction of the reply, the appellant had sought for the reason for non-selection of the appellant to the post of Field Supervisor (Civil) and hence filed the appeal.

In this regard the following information is furnished to the appellant as under;

- 1) The appellant had secured 42 marks against which the cut of marks was 41.
- 2) As per the Notification, if the vacancy is less than 3, the empanelment ratio of the eligible candidates who secured marks above the cut of marks (41) will be 1:5. As the vacancy for ST category was only 1 as per the notification, the total number of eligible candidates empaneled was 5, wherein the position of the "Appellant" was 4th position.
- 3) The question of appointment of the "appellant" would be applicable only when the eligible candidates empaneled in the position of 1 to 3 do not join after their offer of appointment.

With this order, the Appeal stands disposed of.

A copy of the Order may be sent to the Appellant.

Date: 27.05.2020.
