Text of RTI First Appeal :	Refusal by the Public Information Officer to provide information to us as a third party under Section 8(1)(j) of the RTI Act. Here we are the victim citizens. 765 KVDC by PowerGrid Corporation Village -Runi Taluka Kankrej district Banaskantha In Bhuj-Banaskantha transmission line there is massive corruption by officials of Power grid Corporation. Although no trees were damaged in our neighbor's farm, they have been compensated Rs.3 lakh while we have been paid only Rs.65000/-. 765 KVDC by Power Grid Corporation Village -Runi Taluka Kankrej district Banaskantha In Bhuj-Banaskantha transmission line there has been massive corruption by officials of Power grid Corporation in payment of compensation per power line pole. 1.5 lakhs to a farmer, 8 lakhs to a farmer and 11 lakhs to a farmer for power line pole. Here in the village there is such a difference in compensation despite being close to the farmer's farm. The information sought by us is public and your office has refused to provide the information which is inappropriate. Hence, another appeal will be filed in the Hon'ble Information Commission as we have not received complete information. Hence, although it is necessary to send the details of the name and address of the concerned Information Commission, the first appeal officer's letter dated 31/10/2022 has not given the information that the second appeal is to be filed in the State Information Commission or the Central Information Commission within 90 days, which RTI is against the law. The first appellate authority is not the final authority.
